RE: Emergency Management

As educators and parents, we all take on great responsibility in teaching and guiding our children. Every day we help them learn and grow while we prepare them for the future.

However, our roles go beyond that. The world is a different place in the 21st Century and we must now consider the safety of students in ways we didn't have to in the past.

The safety of our students and staff is a top priority. We have emergency plans in place for all of our schools and facilities, and train regularly with our staff.

We also work very closely with state and local law enforcement and emergency management personnel and have coordinated plans in place in case of an emergency or unexpected event.

Please take a moment to review the information on our website regarding inclement weather and emergency information. It's important to be prepared. I know you share my concern. Together we can provide safe and enjoyable environments for the children of Wake County.
